CLIFF WARREN'S COACHES CLINIC AT JACKSONVILLE UNIVERSITY

OBJECTIVE: To expose coaches of all levels to the concepts for team and player development.

Cliff WARREN

HEAD MEN'S BASKETBALL COACH
JACKSONVILLE UNIVERSITY
JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA

In six seasons as the head coach at JU, Cliff Warren has transformed the men's basketball program into an up-and-coming power in the Southeast. In 2010-11, Warren led JU to its second straight 20 win season and 3rd straight post season appearance, playing in the CIT. While at the CIT, the Dolphins upset No. 1 seed East Carolina in overtime to secure the school's second straight season with a postseason victory. Prior to taking over at JU, Warren spent 11 years as an assistant coach in stops at Georgia Tech, Siena and Mount St. Mary's. Coach Warren has helped lead those programs to eight postseason births, including five NCAA tournament bids and three NIT berths, most notably a run to the National Title game at Georgia Tech.
